Our destination:

We went to Torres Vedras, in the district of Lisbon. This is a beautiful city with an interesting history. It was a stronghold, where the soldiers lived.

There are many churches around the city, that show the importance of the Catholic faith in the country. We believe that Torres Vedras is perfect for people who want to discover new places during an holiday.

Monday

- ★ We got to the airport at 8.00AM
- ★ Plane at 10AM but we had 1h of delay
- ★ Arrived around 2PM at the B&B
- ★ Walked around the block
- ★ Dinner at Burger King

Tuesday

- ★ We went to the school at 10 am and we finished lessons at 1 pm.
- ★ Then we had lunch in the school.
- ★ After school, we did a game with the Portuguese guys. We saw monuments, churches and streets of Torres Vedras.
- ★ In the evening we went to a restaurant and here we had dinner with the Portuguese guys, too.

Wednesday Morning

- On Wednesday morning, we went to the school. There we met the portuguese students and we went to Santa Cruz
- At Santa Cruz we saw the ocean which was very particular: the coast was sheer to the sea.

Wednesday Afternoon

- On Wednesday afternoon, we went to Mafra and we had lunch in a small park.
- Then, we went to the Tapada Nacional de Mafra, which is a natural park where many animals live, like wild boars, fawns and deer.
- We returned to the B&B, we relaxed and we got ready for dinner with the Portuguese guys' families.

Thursday

In the morning we went to school from 10am to 13pm.

Right after school, a Portuguese teacher took us to the Portuguese Carnival Museum.

When we returned at the B&B, we took a tour of the neighborhood to buy food and souvenirs.

In the evening we went to a restaurant with the Portuguese guys where we had our last dinner before returning to Italy.
